UTILITY APRON

October 20

11 - 1

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

We were going to get money boxes for the craft booth – – but then thought about utility aprons – so much cuter! You can use a utility apron (shorter and flatter than a regular apron) for lots of things – sewing, craft booth, while working (someone stopped us to say it'd be perfect for a hairdresser), while at home – – basically anytime you wish you had an extra pocket.

SUPPLY LIST:

Fabric

You will need 3 different fabrics, and some lining fabric.

Cut the following rectangles:

12 inches by 19 inches (the main piece) – cut 1 of fabric and 1 of lining

17 inches by 19 inches (the big pockets) – cut 1 of fabric, fold in half length wise and iron.

12 inches by 19 inches (the small pockets) – cut 1 of fabric, fold in half length wise and iron.
